2. Compliance with Statutory and Regulatory Requirements

NVIDIA Corporation confirms compliance with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and guidelines in the United States, including but not limited to:

- The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (SOX) and related SEC reporting requirements.
- The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act.
- The California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) and other data protection regulations.
- Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) reporting standards as mandated by the SEC and other regulatory bodies.
- All tax obligations, including federal, state, and local taxes, with no outstanding liabilities as of the date of this declaration.

We further confirm that our Permanent Account Number (PAN) is NVID6789P and our Corporate Identification Number (CIN) is C0586842. NVIDIA Corporation is not registered under the Goods and Services Tax (GST) regime as it is not applicable to our operations in the USA.

3. Declaration of No Litigation or Default

NVIDIA Corporation hereby declares that, to the best of its knowledge, as of July 14, 2026:

- There are no pending or threatened legal proceedings, arbitrations, or regulatory investigations against the company that could materially affect its financial position or operations.
- The company is not in default under any loan agreements, credit facilities, or other financial obligations, nor has it received any notice of default from any creditor.
- There are no outstanding judgments, decrees, or orders against the company that remain unsatisfied.

- The company has not filed for bankruptcy, insolvency, or reorganization under any applicable law, nor has it been declared insolvent by any court or regulatory authority.

4. Related Party Transactions and Conflicts of Interest

NVIDIA Corporation discloses the following related party transactions and confirms that all such transactions are conducted on an arm's length basis and in compliance with applicable laws and corporate governance policies:

- Transactions with directors or their relatives: None that materially affect the financial statements.
- Transactions with key management personnel: Standard compensation packages as approved by the Board of Directors, disclosed in the annual proxy statement.
- Transactions with major shareholders: None that exceed 1% of the company's annual revenue.
- Transactions with subsidiaries or affiliates: Conducted in the ordinary course of business and disclosed in the company's consolidated financial statements.

The company has a robust conflict-of-interest policy, and all directors and key management personnel have submitted annual conflict-of-interest declarations. No conflicts exist that could materially impact the company's financial position or creditworthiness.

| Related Party       | Nature of Relationship           | Transaction Details                                            |
